AS my Regard for the Public cannot be doubted by my conſtant Readers, for whoſe Uſe and Entertainment I have for ſo many Years ranſack'd my own and my Authors Brains, together with Writings both Ancient and Modern, Prints and Manuſcripts; ſo it may eaſily be ſuppoſed, a Copy of the following charitable Propoſal was received and is now Publiſhed by me with uncommon Satisfaction; as in my own Opinion, (which is always humbly ſubmitted to that of the Public) it is a very good One, and deſerves both Encouragement and Imitation.

A General PLAN or SCHEME, for Setting up and Supporting a CHARITY SCHOOL in the Pariſh of ST. PETER's in Talbot County, for the Maintainance and Education of ORPHANS and other poor CHILDREN.

VI. That after ſuch a Courſe of Exerciſe and Inſtruction as may be neceſſary, they ſhall be put out to Services or Apprenticeſhips, as may ſeem beſt to the Truſtees, for the Credit of the Eſtabliſhment, and the Good of the CHILDREN, as well as that of the Country in general.

VII. That if it ſhall pleaſe GOD ſo to bleſs the Endeavours of the Truſtees as to enable them to ſet up ſome uſeful MANUFACTURE, they ſhall lay themſelves out in that Way, and ſtrive to make the Produce of the CHILDREN's Labour contribute towards their Support or better Encouragement, as Circumſtances may require.

DECREE in CHANCERY, relating to the Boundaries of PENNSYLVANIA and MARYLAND.

LORD CHANCELLOR. Tuesday, May 15, 1750.

Penn, Ld. Baltimore, } Cur. DECLARE, That the Articles of Agreement of the 10th of May, 1732, are valid and obligatory upon the several Parties who executed the same, or the Indorsements thereupon, and their Heirs and Assigns; and that the said Articles ought to be specifically executed and performed, by and between the said Parties respectively, notwithstanding that the several Periods of Time thereby limited, for doing and performing divers Matters and Things therein mentioned and agreed upon, are elapsed: But that the said Articles do not bind or prejudice any Prerogative, Property, Title or Interest of the Crown, in or to the Territories, Districts or Tracts of Land, comprised in the said Articles, or any Part thereof; nor any Estate, Right, Interest or Possession of any of the Planters, Proprietors, Tenants or Occupiers of any Lands or Tenements, within the said Territories, Districts or Tracts, of, in or to any Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, lying within the same, which the Parties aforesaid had not a Right, or Power, by Virtue of the respective Charters or Grants under which they claim, to bind or conclude. Therefore Decree, That the said Articles of the 10th of May, 1732, and the several Matters and Things therein contained, be performed and carried into Execution, by and between the said Parties, and every of them; and to that End, let the Plaintiffs, Thomas Penn, and Richard Penn, the Father, in their own Right, and as standing in the Place of John Penn, deceased, and the Defendant, the Lord Baltimore, respectively, before the End of three Kalendar Months from this Day, execute under their Hands and Seals, two several proper Instruments, appointing and authorizing proper Persons, not more than seven on each Side, with full Powers to the said seven Persons respectively, or any three or more of them, for the actual running, marking and laying out the Part of a Circle, and the several Lines in the said Articles mentioned: And such Commissioners are to give due Notice to each other, and to fix and agree upon a Time or Times, to begin and proceed in the running, marking and laying out the same: And let the same be begun, at the furthest, sometime in the Month of November next, and be proceeded in according to the said Articles: And let the said Lines be marked out by visible Stones, Posts, Trees, Pillars, Buildings, Land-marks, or other certain Boundaries, which may remain and continue: And let such Boundaries be marked on one Side with the Arms of the said Defendant, the Lord Baltimore, and on the other Side with the Arms of the Plaintiffs: And let such Lines be compleatly so run, marked and laid out, on or before the last Day of April, 1752. And when so done, let a true and exact Plan and Survey thereof, with the best, and most exact and certain Descriptions that can be given of the same, be made up, signed and sealed by the said Commissioners on both Sides, and by their Principals, and be entered in all the public Offices in the Provinces of Maryland and Pennsylvania, and the three Lower Counties of Newcastle, Kent, and Sussex: And let a true Copy of such respective Instruments, for appointing Commissioners, when prepared, be delivered by the Solicitor of the one Party, to the Solicitor of the other Party; and in case the Parties shall differ about such Instruments, or either of them, let the Master settle the same. And two Questions in particular, having been raised in America, by the Commissioners formerly appointed by the Defendant, the Lord Baltimore, and being now made in this Cause; viz. Where the Center of the Circle agreed by the said Articles to be drawn about the Town of Newcastle, therein mentioned, ought to be fixed; and whether the said Circle ought to be of a Radius, or Semidiameter, of twelve Miles, or only of a Periphery of twelve Miles: And a third Question being also made in this Cause, viz. At what Place the Cape, called in the said Articles Cape Henlopen, is situated; Declare, That I am of Opinion, that, according to the true Intent and Construction of the said Articles, the Center of the said Circle ought to be fixed in the Middle of the Town of Newcastle, as near as the same can be computed; and that the said Circle ought to be of a Radius, or Semidiameter of twelve Miles; and that Cape Henlopen ought to be deemed and taken to be situated at the Place where the same is laid down and described, in the Map or Plan annexed to the said Articles, to be situated: And therefore Decree, That the said Articles be carried into Execution accordingly. And after the said Limits and Boundaries shall be so set out and ascertained by the said Commissioners, let the Plaintiffs, Thomas Penn, and Richard Penn, the Father, in their own Right, and as standing in the Place of the said John Penn, deceased, and the Defendant, the Lord Baltimore, respectively, release and convey to each other, and their Heirs, their respective Rights, Titles, Interests, Powers, Prerogatives, Claims, Demands and Pretensions, in or to the respective Territories, Districts and Lands, severally allotted to them, according to the tenth Article contained in the said Articles of Agreement, at the Costs and Charges of the Person or Persons, to whom such Release and Conveyance shall be made: And let the Master settle such Releases and Conveyances, if the Parties differ about the same; and let all proper Parties join in such Releases and Conveyances, as the Master shall direct. But this Decree is to be without Prejudice to any Prerogative, Power, Property, Title or Interest, of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, in or to the said Territories, Districts or Tracts of Land, or any Part thereof, and also to any Estate, Right, Interest or Possession, of any of the said Planters, Proprietors, Tenants or Occupiers of, in, or to, any Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, lying within the same, which the Parties to the said Articles had not a Right or Power, by Virtue of the respective Charters or Grants, under which they claim to bind or conclude. And in case his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, shall insist upon any Power, Title or Right whatsoever, either on Behalf of his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, or of any of his or their Subjects residing in, or being possessed of, or interested in any Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, lying within any of the said Territories, Districts or Tracts of Land, so as to hinder, obstruct or interrupt the effectual Execution or Performance of the said Articles, or any Part thereof, then, and in every such Case, let any of the Parties be at Liberty to apply to this Court from Time to Time, as they shall be advised; and reserve the Consideration of any further, or other Directions, to be given, as between the Plaintiffs and the Defendant, the Lord Baltimore, and the Defendants claiming under William Penn, Esq; deceased, upon any such Application. And let the Plaintiffs pay unto the Defendant, the Earl Poulet, his Costs of this Suit, to be taxed by the Master: And let the Defendant, the Lord Baltimore, pay unto the Plaintiffs their Costs of this Suit to this Time, to be taxed by the Master; and reserve the Consideration of the subsequent Costs, and of all further Directions, until the Time herein before limited for Performance of the said Articles shall be expired. And any of the Parties are to be at Liberty to resort to the Court, as there shall be Occasion.
